3. Current and Desired Housing: Information about the service member's current living situation and their requirements or preferences for government housing. This might include desired proximity to work, school, or specific amenities.
4. Justification and Remarks: A section for providing any additional context, special circumstances, or justifications for the housing request. This is a critical area for detailing any unique needs or extenuating circumstances.

Incomplete Information systematically and ensure every mandatory field is addressed.

Incorrect or Outdated Information

Service members move, families grow, and circumstances change. It's essential to ensure all information, especially regarding dependents and current housing, is up-to-date at the time of submission. Relying on old information can lead to significant processing delays and incorrect allocations. Regularly check official sources for the latest form versions to avoid using outdated templates.

Unclear Justifications

The "Remarks" or "Justification" section is often used to explain unique situations or special needs. Vague or insufficient explanations can lead to requests being denied or delayed. Be specific and provide concrete reasons why your housing request is important or requires special consideration.

Formatting Errors

Even with fillable fields, improper formatting can still occur. For example, entering a phone number with extra characters or an incorrect date format. PDF forms often have character limits or specific formatting requirements for certain fields. Pay attention to any prompts or hints provided within the fillable fields.

Lack of Proper Signatures and Approvals

DD Form 2860 often requires multiple signatures, including your own and your commanding officer's. Ensure all required parties sign the form. Furthermore, confirm whether digital signatures are accepted or if a wet signature is necessary before printing and circulating the document for approvals.

Beyond the Fillable Form: Related Resources and Support
