Before you even think about the test, you need to know if you're eligible to become a notary. Questions might revolve around: *

**Age:** You must be at least 18 years old. * **Residency:** You must be a resident of North Carolina or employed in North Carolina.

* **Education:** You must have a high school diploma or equivalent.

This is the heart of the exam. You'll be tested on what you can and cannot do as a notary. * **Impartiality:** A notary must be an impartial witness. This means you cannot have a direct financial or beneficial interest in the document being notarized. * **Prohibited Acts:** You cannot give legal advice, draft legal documents (unless you are also a licensed attorney), or act as a notary if there's a conflict of interest. * **Document Types:** Knowing which documents typically require notarization (e.g., deeds, powers of attorney, affidavits, oaths, affirmations). * **Journal Keeping:** North Carolina requires notaries to maintain a journal of all official acts. The signer then signs the document. What type of notarial act should you perform?" * A) Oath * B) Affirmation * C) Acknowledgment * D) Certified Copy * **Answer:** C) Acknowledgment. The North Carolina notary public exam is designed to be comprehensive, touching upon various facets of a notary's duties. To effectively prepare, it's crucial to understand the main thematic areas that frequently appear in test questions.

1. Notarial Acts and Their Execution

This is perhaps the most central aspect of the notary's role. Questions in this section will focus on the various notarial acts a notary is authorized to perform and the specific steps required for each.

Common Notarial Acts:

1. Acknowledgement: The signer declares before a notary that they signed a document voluntarily and for its stated purpose.
2. Jurats: The signer appears before the notary, swears or affirms that the contents of a document are true, and then signs the document in the notary's presence.
3. Oath/Affirmation: Administering an oath or affirmation to a witness or deponent.

4. Copy Certification: Certifying that a copy of an original document is a true and accurate reproduction. (Note: This is often restricted and may not be available for all document types).

Sample NC Notary Public Test Questions and Answers (Notarial Acts):

Question 1: A signer appears before you and states they signed a document for the purpose of transferring property. They do not swear or affirm its contents are true. Which notarial act should you perform?

Answer: Acknowledgement.

Explanation: An acknowledgement involves the signer's affirmation of voluntary execution for a stated purpose, without swearing to the truthfulness of the document's contents. This aligns with the scenario described.

Question 2: A person brings you a document and asks you to witness their signature. They claim the document is true and accurate. What additional step, beyond witnessing the signature, is required for a jurat?

Answer: The signer must take an oath or affirmation from the notary.

Explanation: A jurat requires the signer to swear or affirm the truthfulness of the document's contents before signing it in the notary's presence. The notary administers this oath or affirmation.

2. Identification Requirements

A cornerstone of preventing fraud is the proper identification of the person appearing before the notary. The exam will test your knowledge of acceptable forms of identification and how to verify them.

Acceptable Identification:

North Carolina law outlines specific acceptable forms of identification, typically including:

1. A current, government-issued photo ID (e.g., driver's license, state ID card, passport)
2. A U.S. passport
3. A military ID card
4. A driver's license or ID card issued by another U.S. state
5. An identification card issued by a federally recognized Native American tribe

It's crucial to verify the ID's expiration date and ensure the photo matches the individual.

Sample NC Notary Public Test Questions and Answers (Identification):

Question 3: A signer presents a college student ID with their photo and name. Is this an acceptable form of identification for a notary in North Carolina?

Answer: No, unless it is a state-issued ID card or meets other specific criteria not typically found on a standard college ID.

Explanation: While it has a photo and name, a typical college ID is not a government-issued identification card as defined by North Carolina notary statutes for primary identification purposes.

Question 4: You are presented with a driver's license that has expired six months ago. Can you use this for notarization?

Answer: No, the identification must be current and not expired.

Explanation: Notaries are required to verify that the identification presented is current and valid. Expired documents do not meet this requirement.

3. The Notary Journal

Maintaining a notary journal is a critical requirement in North Carolina. This journal serves as a chronological record of all official acts performed by the notary and is essential for accountability and in case of disputes or inquiries.

Required Journal Entries:

Your journal must contain specific information for each notarization, including:

1. Date and time of the notarization
2. Type of notarial act performed
3. Title or type of document notarized
4. Signature of the person whose signature is being notarized
5. Printed name and signature of the notary

6. The fee charged, if any
7. The signer's identification method and details
8. Any other information required by law or regulation

Sample NC Notary Public Test Questions and Answers (Journal):

Question 5: You notarize a document for a friend. What information regarding the signer must be recorded in your notary journal?

Answer: The signer's printed name, signature, and the method of identification used.

Question 6: Is it acceptable to leave the "Fee Charged" line blank in your notary journal if you are not charging a fee for the service?

Answer: No, you should record "0" or "No Fee" to indicate that no fee was charged.

Explanation: The journal should reflect the complete transaction, including whether a fee was collected. Leaving it blank could be misinterpreted.

4. Prohibited Acts and Ethical Considerations

Notaries are held to a high ethical standard. The exam will assess your understanding of actions that are considered misconduct or are strictly prohibited.

Common Prohibitions:

1. Notarizing a document in which you have a direct financial or beneficial interest.
2. Notarizing a document signed by yourself.
3. Notarizing a blank document.
4. Completing a certificate or other notarial wording on behalf of the signer.
5. Exercising any authority beyond that granted by law.
6. Failing to maintain a complete and accurate journal.

Question 7: You are notarizing a deed for your own home purchase. Is this permissible?

Answer: No, you cannot notarize a document in which you have a direct financial or beneficial interest.

Explanation: This is a conflict of interest. Notaries must remain impartial and objective. The deed directly affects your financial stake.

Question 8: A signer asks you to complete the entire affidavit for them, including filling in the details of their statement. Can you do this?

Answer: No, a notary cannot complete the notarial certificate or fill in the substantive content of a document on behalf of the signer.

Explanation: The signer is responsible for the contents of the document. The notary's role is to verify their identity, witness their signature, and administer oaths/affirmations as required. Filling in the content is practicing law without a license and is beyond the scope of a notary's authority.

5. Fees and Charges

While notaries can charge for their services, there are statutory limits on the fees they can collect. Understanding these limits is crucial.

Sample NC Notary Public Test Questions and Answers (Fees):

Explanation: Fees are regulated to prevent exploitation. Notaries must adhere to the established maximum charges.

6. The Notary's Seal and Signature

The notary seal and signature are the official marks of a notary public. Proper usage and care of these are essential.

Sample NC Notary Public Test Questions and Answers (Seal):

Question 10: What is the primary purpose of a notary seal?
